

THEATRE

Mission Statement

The Department of Theatre Arts undergraduate programs in theatre will equip students with the knowledge, skills and experience necessary to become working professionals and effective members of the arts community.

Student Learning Outcomes

UWF Theatre graduates should be able to do the following:

Content

- Identify and apply the basic concepts, principles, and theories of the discipline of theatre
- Describe the history and traditions of the theatre arts and articulate how the component functions of theatre (e.g., acting, directing, stage design) develop and become integrated in a production

Critical Thinking

- Analyze and evaluate elements of theatre (e.g., scripts, productions, performances) according to quality criteria
- Solve problems creatively related to specific functions (e.g., actor, director, set designer) in production

Communication

- Show refined use of voice and body as an instrument to accomplish a theatrical objective

Integrity/Values

- Express accurate and honest personal insights about the strengths and weaknesses of one's performance, and accept feedback, correction, and direction courteously and professionally

Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

Annual Assessment of Portfolio, and capstone coursework

Job Prospects for Graduates in Theatre

Theatre Historian, Dramaturg, Theatre Teacher

Find Out More about Theatre at UWF:

<https://uwf.edu/cassh/departments/theatre/>

THEATRE

College of Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities

05/20