

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages, Graduate Certificate

Mission Statement

The online certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) is structured to prepare completers to teach English as an additional language in a variety of settings. The certificate covers the five domains of TESOL adopted by the Florida Department of Education (FDOE) and are based on recommendations by the International TESOL Organization.

Student Learning Outcomes

Content:

Analyze cross-cultural and cross-linguistics characteristics of communication as they relate to teaching culturally and linguistically diverse students.

Apply theories of second language acquisition and language learning processes in lesson planning.

Produce critical and creative TESOL materials based on current approaches and methodology, curriculum and materials development, and the assessment of language learners.
