Article I. General Policy and Philosophy

A critical mission of the University of West Florida ("UWF" or the "University") is to promote a vibrant academic atmosphere in which students not only receive a well-rounded education, but learn to become productive and ethical members of society. University students are encouraged to think critically about issues that affect us all, carry themselves with integrity, develop a sense of ethical responsibility as well as treat others in a manner in which they wish to be treated. In addition, students have a duty to care for others in the University community, on or off campus, by rendering aid and seeking help from appropriate medical, emergency, or University staff members during a moment of need. The University of West Florida represents a community that values the basic tenets of: responsibility, integrity, scholarship, creativity, diversity, excellence, and care. It is hoped that after students graduate, they apply the knowledge acquired during their tenure at UWF into their professional and personal lives. To help accomplish these objectives, UWF has a Student Code of Conduct ("Conduct Code") that is structured so that, as members of the UWF community, students are informed of their required roles and responsibilities, the rights that pertain to them, as well as how the Student Code of Conduct is administered.

University students and student organizations/groups are expected to uphold appropriate standards of behavior and to respect the rights and privileges of others. This Student Code of Conduct applies to individual students as well as student organizations/groups. All students and student organizations/groups are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with all federal, state and local laws, and Board of Governors and University regulations, and policies.

The University is committed to ensuring that all students, faculty, and staff are treated with dignity and respect. UWF affirms its desire to maintain a learning and living environment for all students that is free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. All members of the University community are responsible for ensuring that their conduct does not discriminate, harass or retaliate against others, and are to cooperate in maintaining a climate where discrimination, harassment and retaliation are not tolerated, while respecting the First Amendment rights of others.

As a recipient of Federal funds, the University is required to comply with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. ("Title IX"), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. This Student Code of Conduct sets forth rights and procedures for Title IX cases and Non-Title IX cases. For sexual harassment and discrimination cases referred for adjudication to the Dean of Students Office by a Title IX investigation report, the Title IX procedures listed in Article VI will apply. For all other cases Article V in this document will apply.

In keeping with the UWF's values, any sanctions imposed are for the purposes of restoring the standards of the University community, educating students and student organizations/groups about the seriousness of their action(s), promoting civility and positive growth, while maintaining the safety and integrity of the University community.

The Student Code of Conduct applies to all UWF campuses, UWF Sponsored programs, including international and exchange programs, and to off-campus conduct.

The University of West Florida President delegates administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Academic Engagement and Student Affairs, who delegates portions of the administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Students, who may further delegate these responsibilities to other appropriate staff. All references to the Vice President of Academic Engagement and Student Affairs or Dean of Students in this Conduct Code also refer to that individual's designee(s).

The Student Code of Conduct shall be reviewed, at minimum, every three years under the direction of the Vice President of Academic Engagement and Student Affairs by a committee composed of at least 50% students appointed by the President of the UWF Setudent Ggovernment Association.president.

Article VI. Procedure for Title IX Cases

Federal anti-discrimination laws articulated in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972-(20 U.S.C. §1681–1688) and federal regulations or guidelines require that institutions of higher-education provide an equitable process for adjudicating cases of sexual misconduct, sexual-violence and gender-based discrimination ("Title IX"). As such, The University has established an alternative hearing procedure under this policy to address and adjudicate alleged sexual_harassment misconduct, sexual violence and gender-based discrimination-violations under Title IX where the charged studentRespondent is a University student and the Ceomplainant is an individual who is participating in, or attempting to participate in, a UWF program or activity at the time of filing a complaint. Not all sexual harassment allegations will meet Title IX's definition of sexual harassment. Those cases that do not meet Title IX's threshold will follow the procedures in Article V of this document.

When the University has received a Title IX complaint, the University's Title IX Coordinator or designee will review the complaint to determine whether, assuming the allegations to be true, the Title IX Policy would be violated based on the allegations. If the allegations would constitute a violation, the Title IX Coordinator will assign the case to a Title IX Investigator. The Investigator is a neutral fact—finder who, during the course of the investigation, typically conducts interviews with the victim and/or complainant, the charged student, and any witnesses. At the conclusion of the investigation, if it is determined that there is sufficient cause to move forward with formal charges of misconduct against a student under this regulation, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Dean of Students Office.
