Leisure Learning Society Update

May 5, 2009

The Leisure Learning Society is proud to announce:

“From the Farmhouse to the “Big House”

Dr. Judith Bense, President, UWF

Some people know just where they are going and they take the road that leads them straight there, with no twists or turns. But others, like Dr. Judy Bense, take a different road, one less traveled but nonetheless exciting, astonishing and remarkable. For 28 years, she served as chair and professor of the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology at the University of West Florida, literally building the department from an idea in her head to one of the most nationally known archaeology programs in the country. Someone once said, “Excellence can be obtained if you...care more than others think is wise; risk more than others think is safe; dream more than others think is practical; and expect more than others think is possible.”

Dr. Judy Bense has taken this quote to heart and has a passion to share her vision and success with others. This is her story...and her story can be an inspiration to those who also seek excellence.”

CLASSES

Please help us keep coming up with new ideas for classes and tours. We are constantly looking for fresh ideas, new instructors, great places to go and explore. We know you know someone who has a hobby, an expertise in a particular subject, retired teacher or professor who would like to get back in the classroom, an interesting personal story.

Please call us at 474-3491 and let us know how to contact your recommendation. If you simply have an idea for a class but don't know who might instruct it, then call us and let us find an instructor for your class.

We look forward to hearing from you! Our members make all the difference!
