

UWF International Photo Contest Rules

Only one photo entry per person may be submitted.

The photo must meet one of the following categories. Please check which one in the entry form.

Send Me There! – A photo that will make others want to participate in travel abroad; a shot of you or other students that makes a statement about your abroad experience.

In a Different Light – Your typical travel photo but taken from a new or unique perspective. An image that makes a viewer want to learn more.

Social Issue – A thought-provoking image that has to do with (or exhibits) a social issue of a foreign country. Introduce the viewer to your destination beyond the tourist attractions.

Entrants must be a currently enrolled University of West Florida student.

Photos must be the original property of the entrant and may not have been nationally published or be under consideration for publication. Photos may not be digitally altered.

Entries must be accompanied with the signed entry form, located on the second page.

In the body of the email, provide a title, a description and the location and date of the photograph. Only color or black and white prints will be accepted.

Photo and entry form must be emailed by November 9, 2009, no later than midnight. Late entries will not be accepted.
