

HISTORIC PRESERVATION CERTIFICATE

NAME _____ MAJOR _____

PROPOSED DATE OF GRADUATION _____

The certificate program in historic preservation requires the completion of eighteen (18) credit hours of courses at the Master's level.

REQUIRED, 3 hours (must take one, but not both)

_____ HIS5990 Issues in Historic Preservation

_____ ANG5990 Issues in Historic Preservation

Students may choose their elective courses based on their particular area of interest, but electives will also be determined by a variety of other factors, such as the availability and frequency of the course, the need of a prerequisite course or permission of the instructor, or permission to take a graduate course outside History or Anthropology. Students must take two courses from History and two from Anthropology, for a total of 12 hours. One of the four elective courses within either History or Anthropology must be a methodology course (HIS6055 or ANG5173)

REQUIRED, 3 hours (must take one, but not all three)

_____ HIS6055 Public History Methodology

_____ HIS6990 Graduate Methods

_____ ANG5173 Historic Research Methods in Archaeology

History Electives: (3-6 hours)

_____ HIS5087 - Advanced Museology

_____ HIS5515 - History of Architecture

_____ HIS5990 – American Architecture

_____ HIS5990- Material Culture

_____ HIS5990 – Public History Expedition

_____ Other HIS

Anthropology Electives: (3-6 hours)

_____ ANG513 Nautical Archaeology

_____ ANG5157 Pre-Columbian Arch.

_____ ANG5172 Historical Archaeology

_____ ANG5181 GIS

_____ ANG5991 Ethnographic Methods

_____ ANG6196 His Pres Policies and Practice

_____ Other ANG

The remaining 3 hours can come from the approved list of electives in History or Anthropology, or the student may take a course from another department. Additional courses may be approved with the Director's approval.

*Students are required to inform the Chair of History of an intent to graduate so that the department can forward the certificate information to the Registrar's Office. Failure to do so will prevent the student from earning the certificate. In addition, it is up to the student to coordinate with the Chair of History to determine appropriate courses and as to whether or not the requirements for the certificate have been fulfilled.