AGENCY NAME: Escambia County Community Corrections; Gordon Pike, Bureau Chief

ADDRESS: 2251 N. Palafox Street

CITY: Pensacola  STATE: FL  ZIP: 32501

Office Hours: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Purpose or goal of agency:
To provide alternatives to incarceration that ensures public safety, promotes responsible behavior, and encourages lifestyle changes.

Intern duties:
To comply with the recommendations and guidelines of the University of West Florida regarding the number of hours and any other guidance provided for a successful internship; To follow the instructions, procedures, and guidelines provided by the Escambia County Community Corrections Division.

Description of what a student would learn from this placement:
The student intern will learn the various aspects of how the Community Corrections Division operates. In addition, they will learn the importance of professionalism, networking, and collaborating with other criminal justice agencies. They will be afforded the opportunity (when applicable) to participate in hands on learning situations, attend court hearings, learn the fundamentals of case management, learn how to establish a rapport with clients, participate in training sessions, and how to apply their criminal justice knowledge to real day to day situations.

Agency Website:
myescambia.com