This sheet identifies sample occupations and work settings associated with the Elementary Education, Exceptional Student Education, and Informal Education and Learning majors in the College of Education and Professional Studies. These are not the only options for this major, so further research may be necessary to identify a career path that is right for you. Additional training may be required for some of these options.

Sample Occupations:
- Public School Teacher (K-12)
- Private School Teacher (K-12)
- Instructional Teacher (K-12)
- Online Instructor (K-12)
- Preschool Teacher
- Instructional Materials Developer
- Supplement Education Services Provider
- Afterschool Coordinator
- Museum Education Coordinator
- Outdoor Education Coordinator
- Environmental Education Coordinator
- Adult Education Coordinator
- Parks and Recreation Program Specialist
- Parent Education
- Special Education Teacher
- ESOL Teacher

Sample Work Settings:
Corporations, Private/Public Schools, Local/Federal Government Agencies, Military, Contractors, Museums

Industry Buzzwords:
Industry buzzwords are words or phrases specific to an industry, profession, or field of study and are used by recruiters to vet applicants for positions. Below is a sample list of buzzwords for the Education and Learning industry. Buzzwords can be found in the job description and should be incorporated into your resume and cover letter.

Child development, classroom management, teaching certification, curriculum design, record maintenance, policy interpretation, instructional technology skills, writing and face-to-face communications skills, presenting, advocacy, grit, interpersonal skills, problem solving.

Career Exploration & Job Search Resources:
- Career and Major Exploration Resources: MyCareerShines (accessed via MyUWF), OnetOnline.org
- Job Search Resources: JasonQuest (accessed via MyUWF), LinkedIn, company job pages.
- Salary Research: http://www.naceweb.org/salary-resources/starting-salaries.aspx
- Teacher Career Sites: K-12 Jobs.com and SchoolSpring.com