This sheet identifies sample occupations and work settings associated with the Building Construction major in the College of Education and Professional Studies. These are not the only options for this major, so further research may be necessary to identify a career path that is right for you. Additional training may be required for some of these options.

Sample Occupations:

- Building Control Surveyor
- Building Services Engineer
- Building Surveyor
- Facilities Manager
- Quantity Surveyor
- Site Engineer
- Architectural Technologist
- Financial Manager
- Further Education Teacher
- Logistics and Distribution Manager
- Management Consultant
- Planning and Development Surveyor
- Town Planner
- Construction Superintendent
- Civil Construction Estimator
- Highway/Bridge Construction Worker
- Staff Estimator
- Office Coordinator/Interior Design
- Construction Supervisor
- Construction Scheduler

Sample Work Settings:

Businesses, Corporations, Public Schools, Local/Federal Government, Military, Contractors, Colleges and Universities.

Industry Buzzwords:

Industry buzzwords are words or phrases specific to an industry, profession, or field of study and are used by recruiters to vet applicants for positions. Below is a sample list of buzzwords for the Building Construction industry. Buzzwords can be found in the job description and should be incorporated into your resume and cover letter.

- Plant operations systems, maintenance, utilities, repairs/renovations, hazardous materials standards, supervisory skills, problem solving, project management, vendor relations, code and policy interpretation, ordering, budgeting, design experience.

Career Exploration & Job Search Resources:

- Career and Major Exploration Resources: MyCareerShines (accessed via MyUWF), OnetOnline.org
- Job Search Resources: JasonQuest (accessed via MyUWF), LinkedIn, company job pages.
- Salary Research: http://www.naceweb.org/salary-resources/starting-salaries.aspx