The University of West Florida
Athletic Training Education Program
Evaluation of the Clinical Sites

CLINICAL SITE: ____________________________  TIME PERIOD OF EVALUATION: ________________

Today’s date ______________________

1 2 3 4 5 Strongly Disagree   _ _ _ Strongly Agree

This site provides an opportunity for Athletic Training students to:
1 2 3 4 5 A. have exposure to both male and female athletes/patients;
1 2 3 4 5 B. have exposure to adequate equipment and supplies for athletic training purposes;
1 2 3 4 5 C. have hands-on experience in taping and protective methods;
1 2 3 4 5 D. have hands-on Evaluation and Assessment opportunities;
1 2 3 4 5 E. use modalities under the direct supervision of an ACI;
1 2 3 4 5 F. exposure to other allied health professionals.

Please provide comments for each of the areas above.
A________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________
B________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________
C________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________
D________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________
E________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________
F________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________

OVER-ALL Summary
The thing I enjoyed most at this site:
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________

Things that would make this a better experience:
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________