Once an Argonaut, always an Argonaut! As a service to our Alumni, the University Libraries allow UWF alumni borrowing privileges and other services as outlined below. It is our hope that continued access to library services and resources will assist you in your personal, professional, and academic endeavors long after your graduation from the University.

LIBRARY CARDS
A picture ID and proof of current local address (such as a driver’s license, utility bill, voter registration, bank statement or check) must be presented at the time the alumnus applies for the library card. If you already possess an Alumni Nautilus Card, it can be used as your UWF library card. We require proof of your Alumni status in order to issue you an Alumni library card.

LIBRARY FINES

Overdue Items
Books: 25¢ per day, maximum fine $8
DVD’s: 25¢ per day, maximum fine $12
Headphones: $1.20 per hour
Network Cables: $4 per day
Permanent Reserves: $.25 per day.

Damaged Items
Fines for damaged items will be evaluated on a case by case basis resulting in a minimum fine of $10 for repairable damage and up to $75 if the item must be replaced.

Lost Items
Fines for lost books, DVD’s, and Audio CD’s are $75. Any other lost item fines will be evaluated on a case by case basis based on the replacement cost of the item. Lost item fines may be waived if the item is returned in good condition and in time to prevent the item’s withdrawal from the catalog. All overdue fines associated with a lost item are still applicable if the item is returned.

If it is more economical, you have the option of purchasing a copy of the same—or newer—edition of the item and presenting it to the library. Used items in good condition may be accepted on a case by case basis.

To contest a fine on your library account you must fill out a Library Fine Appeals Form. This form can be found in several places on the library website and on the iPads used for equipment checkout located at the Circulation Desk. For more information contact the Circulation Accounts Coordinator at 850-857-6163.
