NURSING

Mission Statement
The mission of the University of West Florida Nursing Program is to educate the student as a professional nurse – one who is a clinical generalist, a leader, and a lifelong learner.

The nursing graduate of the UWF program will be capable of using the nursing process with clients of all ages, with diverse backgrounds in a variety of health care settings. The program develops and refines clinical skills and stimulates the awareness of research applications, the practice of active inquiry, the ability to think and respond critically, and the desire for advanced study. This baccalaureate program provides a service to the health care community by increasing the number of nurses who practice professional nursing. The program also serves the populations’ health needs by providing quality nursing care.

Student Learning Outcomes
UWF Nursing graduates should be able to do the following:

Content
- Use the concepts of nursing theory, research, and practice, based on the foundation of the arts and sciences courses, in the provision of care to diverse clients of all ages
- Employ theories and principles of leadership/management in the provision of quality nursing care
- Describe and use appropriate teaching-learning theories to design, implement, and evaluate educational experiences with clients of all ages and abilities

Critical Thinking
- Use effective critical thinking skills (e.g., observation, analysis, synthesis) through the nursing process to provide and direct quality care to diverse clients of all ages
- Incorporate socio-cultural, ethnic, religious, and other unique individual considerations in the plan of care

- Explain the need for lifelong learning and describe a feasible plan for professional development
- Function as a beginning leader/change agent through participation in community, governmental, and professional agencies/groups/organizations

Project Management
The Project Management learning domain in nursing is organized into four categories with related student learning outcomes. The four broad categories with associated specific student learning outcomes are:

Project Conceptualization
- Selects and defines a realistic problem to be solved
- Integrates discipline concepts, resources, and research appropriately

Self-regulation
- Sets appropriate goals for completing project
- Manages appropriate time-frame

Team-work Skills
- Fulfill responsibilities as team member
- Assesses quality of contributions of each team member accurately

Project Delivery
- Delivers a quality project on time
- Effectively presents results using oral, written, and/or visual means

Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes
Evaluation of student achievement of these learning outcomes will occur in each of the nursing courses in the student’s curriculum. It will be supplemented with Educational Resources Incorporated (ERI) data when available (generic students only). The capstone courses, NUR 4827 Nursing Management &Leadership and NUR4945L Nursing Management & Leadership Clinical Lab, will evaluate the learning outcomes through faculty and student evaluation. Additionally, the student learning outcomes will be evaluated on a nursing exit survey by each graduating student, upon completion of degree requirements and at one and three years post-graduation.

Overview

The Nursing Program has designed and supports Academic Learning Compacts (ALCs) for the following program:

BSN RN – BSN Plan of Study

Justification for Staged Implementation

To develop sustainable plans for data collection leading to systematic review of these programs, the Nursing Program proposes an assessment plan broken into four stages, as follows:

Summer 2005

Stage 1: Assessment Plan for BSN Plan of Study and RN – BSN Plan of Study

The ALCs associated with the Nursing Program in the BSN Plan of Study and RN – BSN Plan of Study are based on the knowledge and skills students acquire in the courses forming the core “capstone pathways” of these plans of study.

The Nursing Program’s assessment plan for these program calls for the identification of at least one direct and indirect measure of assessment for each program. The indirect measure of assessment will initially be based on an exit survey, supplemented with (Educational Resources Incorporated (ERI) data (when available). For direct measures of assessment, a number of items will be collected beginning in Fall 2005 from the courses listed below to ensure SLO compliance across the five dimensions of Content, Critical Thinking, Communication, Integrity/Values, and Project Management. The following items within each course and their relationships to programmatic SLOs have initially been identified for these purposes:

Use of Information: After baseline data has been collected as described in the staged plan above, data from these sources will be reviewed annually for programmatic review. Copies of derived action plans resulting from these annual meetings will be forwarded to the Dean and summarized for 5-year program reviews.
