Financial Institutions Level 1 Certificate

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the Financial Institutions Level 1 Undergraduate Certificate, the graduate will be able to do the following:

1. Develop an understanding of how accounting fits into the world of business including an appreciation of the nature of basic business activity as it relates to standard financial reporting within the scope of financial institutions.
2. Demonstrate an understanding and meaning of economics topics and developments and their influence on financial institutions.
3. Interpret the economics of the global financial system taking into account the structure of the banking system, the role of money, the behavior of interest rates, the role of government regulation, the importance of foreign exchange markets, and other aspects of monetary theory and policy.

Find out more about the Financial Institutions Level 1 Certificate at UWF: http://uwf.edu/cob/departments/account/certificate-programs/financial-institutions/

Accounting & Finance
College of Business

Updated 3/3/15