Public Health/ Occupational Safety and Health

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the undergraduate certificate in Public Health Occupational Safety and Health, the graduate will be able to do the following:

1. Identify and describe the elements of occupational safety and health programs.
2. Evaluate the process for resolving occupational safety and health issues using appropriate laws and regulations.

Find Out More about the Public Health Occupational Safety and Health Certificate at UWF: