Senate Pro Tempore
Internal Restructuring Bill

Legislative Intent:
The intent of this bill is to restructure SGA to move a considerable amount of power and responsibility into the Senate, while clarifying that the President and Vice President are the premier advocates for issues arisen from student feedback, student interaction, and other work done by the Student Government Association.

This restructure includes the following:

- Remove the Rules and Statutes Committee and replace the chair position with a Senate Pro Tempore position which has greater checks on the Senate President position.

- Add Secretary of the Senate position, selected from within the Senate by the Senate Pro Tempore and confirmed by a majority vote of the Senate.

- Add internal auditing responsibilities to the Treasurer position, as well as move the Treasurer to the Executive Branch, the place it is placed constitutionally.

- Change the name of the University Outreach committee to the University Affairs Committee, and gives this committee the responsibilities of sustainability efforts, namely the Green Fee process.

- Merge the Student Life Office and the Student Outreach Committee to create the Student Affairs Committee. This committee of the Senate will be responsible for both receiving feedback from students and promoting and maintaining Argonaut pride and spirit.

- Make all pronouns referring to SGA Members in the gender binary, replacing with gender neutral terms.

- Upon enactment of this bill, the Committee Chairs elected under the previous SGA structure will transfer to their new respective positions as follows: Student Outreach Chair will become Student Affairs Chair, University Outreach Chair will become University Affairs Chair, the Vice President will remain Vice President and also become Senate President, and a Senate Pro Tempore will be elected by the Senate.
