Regulations

Number: UWF/REG – 5.010
Title: Educational Research Center for Child Development

(1) The Educational Research Center for Child Development (“ERCCD”) is established at The University of West Florida (“University”) to achieve the following goals:

- (a) To give a convenient and affordable educational experience to children of students, faculty, staff, and alumni at the University,
- (b) To conduct child development research by drawing on the interdisciplinary resources of the University, and
- (c) To provide a setting to learn more about the art of teaching as it is accomplished by parents, professionally trained teachers, and para-professionals.

(2) Admissions Process. The goal of the ERCCD’s admissions process is to be inclusive of children regardless of their race, gender, socio-economic level and ethnicity, as well as physical and mental ability (with or without reasonable accommodation). Nothing in this Section shall be construed to relieve the obligation to pay all fees due under this regulation.

- (a) The ERCCD shall give highest admissions priority to the children of current University students and to siblings of children already enrolled in the ERCCD. Such children will be admitted on a first come first served basis.
- (b) The second priority served is children of current University faculty and staff.
- (c) The third priority is to children of alumni.

(3) The ERCCD is funded by a portion of the Capital Improvement Trust Fund Fees and user fees. Operations may also be financed through Student Activity and Service Fee allocations, grants, and donations in accordance with the law. The receipt and monitoring of all funds are in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and regulations of the Board of Governors.

(4) Fees. Enrollment at the ERCCD begins once all fees due are paid in full. The fees shall be as follows:
