

University of West Florida Regulation UWF REG-3.010 Student Code of Conduct

Article I. General Policy and Philosophy

A critical mission of the University of West Florida (UWF) is to promote a vibrant academic atmosphere in which students not only receive a well-rounded education, but learn to become productive and ethical members of society. University students are encouraged to think critically about issues that affect us all, carry themselves with integrity, develop a sense of ethical responsibility as well as treat others in a manner in which they wish to be treated. As such, the University of West Florida represents a community that values the basic tenets of: responsibility, integrity, scholarship, creativity, diversity, excellence and care. It is hoped that after students graduate, they apply the knowledge acquired during their tenure at UWF into their professional and personal lives. To help accomplish these objectives, the University of West Florida has drafted a Student Code of Conduct that is structured so that, as members of the UWF community, students are informed of their required roles and responsibilities, the rights that pertain to them, as well as how the Student Code of Conduct is administered.

University students and student organizations are expected to uphold appropriate standards of behavior and to respect the rights and privileges of others. This Student Code of Conduct applies to individual students as well as student organizations. All students and student organizations are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with all federal, state and local laws, and Board of Governors and University regulations, and policies.

The University is committed to ensuring that all students, faculty and staff are treated with dignity and respect. The University affirms its desire to maintain a learning and living environment for all students that is free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. All members of the University community are responsible for ensuring that their conduct does not discriminate, harass or retaliate against others, and are to cooperate in maintaining a climate where discrimination, harassment and retaliation are not tolerated.

In keeping with the University of West Florida's values, any sanctions imposed are for the purposes of restoring the standards of the University community, educating students and student organizations about the seriousness of their action(s), promoting civility and positive growth, while maintaining the safety and integrity of the University community.

The Student Code of Conduct applies to all UWF campuses, UWF Sponsored programs, including international and exchange programs and to off-campus conduct.

The University of West Florida President delegates administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President for Student Affairs, who delegates portions of the administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Students, who may further delegate these responsibilities to other appropriate staff. All references to the Vice President for Student Affairs or Dean of Students in this Code also refer to his or her designee(s).

The Student Code of Conduct shall be reviewed, at minimum, every three years under the direction of the Vice President for Student Affairs by a committee composed of at least 50% students appointed by the student body president.

The University reserves the right to amend its charge(s) based on information obtained through an outside proceeding where that information is relevant to activity adversely affecting the University community. During the review the student will be provided with the opportunity to explain his or her perspective related to the basis and continued need for the interim measures. The scope of this review is limited solely to the determination of whether that student's presence or continuation of activities adversely affects the health, safety or welfare of the University community.

c. Termination of Interim Measures: Interim measures may be lifted at the conclusion of the interim measure review process or at the conclusion of the disciplinary hearing. Interim measures will be lifted when the University determines that a student or student organization's presence or activities no longer adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the University community.

d. Student Enrollment Status: If a student's enrollment status is changed as a result of an interim measure, but the student is subsequently found not responsible for the violation, the University shall:

i. Correct any record of the change in enrollment status in the student's records and other reports in a manner compliant with State and Federal laws and;

ii. Refund to the student, at a minimum, a pro rata portion of any tuition/fees and other University specific fees and charges as appropriate due to the temporary change in enrollment status and in a manner consistent with University policy and procedures.

This audio record is the official record and is the property of the University and will be considered part of the charged student's disciplinary record. The charged student may submit a written request for a copy of the audio recording which will be provided after receipt of the hearing decision letter.
- p. Standard of Proof: the burden to prove disciplinary cases rests with the University and not with the charged student. The standard of proof shall be "more likely than not." This means that the information presented supports the finding that it was more likely than not that the violation occurred.
- q. Multiple Students Charged: in cases involving multiple students charged from the same incident, information obtained at one hearing may be used at another hearing provided that each charged student involved has the opportunity to review and respond to the information at his or her hearing.
- r. Deliberations: are closed and the decision making shall include only the Hearing Administrator or the Student Conduct Committee members and the Dean of Students as appropriate.
- s. Determination of Responsibility: the Hearing Administrator or Student Conduct Committee (by majority vote) shall determine whether the charged student has violated the Student Code of Conduct. A finding of "responsible" or "not responsible" shall be made for each charge.
- t. Recommendation of Sanctions: the Hearing Administrator or Student Conduct Committee will also, in consultation with the Dean of Students, make recommendations for sanctions in those cases where the charged student is found responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct. The statement may include a description of how the victim was impacted by the conduct violation and may include recommendations for sanctions, penalties or restitution. However, the Hearing Administrator or Student Conduct Committee is not bound by those recommendations.

v. Hearing Decision Notification: A written decision letter from the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities will be provided to the charged student within ten business days following the close of the hearing. This time may be extended for deliberations when necessary and the student shall be notified of any such extensions. #### Article VI. Procedures for Charges, Educational Conferences and Hearings (Title IX Cases)

Federal anti-discrimination laws articulated in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. §1681-1688) and federal regulations or guidelines require that institutions of higher education provide an equitable process for adjudicating cases of sexual misconduct, sexual violence and gender-based discrimination ("Title IX"). As such, the University has established an alternative hearing procedure under this policy to address and adjudicate alleged sexual misconduct, sexual violence and gender-based discrimination violations where the charged student is a University student and the complainant is a University student or employee.

When the University has received a Title IX complaint, the University's Title IX Coordinator will review the complaint to determine whether, assuming the allegations to be true, the Title IX Policy would be violated based on the allegations. If the allegations would constitute a violation, the Title IX Coordinator will assign the case to a Title IX Investigator. The Investigator is a neutral fact-finder who, during the course of the investigation, typically conducts interviews with the complainant, the charged student, and any witnesses. At the conclusion of the investigation, if it is determined that there is sufficient cause to move forward with formal charges of misconduct against a student under this regulation, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

1. Notice of Charges

- a. The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities will notify the charged student via email of the allegations and charge(s).
- b. The notice will include scheduling information for the Educational Conference. If the time or date of the Educational Conference is not convenient to the charged student, the charged student must notify the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities within two business days to reschedule.

2. Educational Conference

- a. For the Charged Student: The Educational Conference is not a hearing. The purpose of the Educational Conference is for the Conduct Officer to review with the charged student the allegations and charges, the Student Code of Conduct, the hearing forum options, the conduct process, and possible sanctions, and to answer questions.
- b. During the conference the charged student will be given the opportunity to accept responsibility or not accept responsibility for the charges.
- c. If the charged student accepts responsibility for the charges:
  - i. The charged student will be asked to sign the Educational Conference Form indicating his or her acceptance of responsibility and that he or she is waiving his or her right to a hearing.
  - ii. An email documenting the charged student's responsibility and the sanctions will be sent concurrently to the charged student as well as the complainant/victim within ten business days of the Educational Conference by the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.
- d. If the charged student does not accept responsibility for the charges:
  - i. The charged student will be asked to sign an Educational Conference Form indicating that he or she does not accept responsibility for the charges and will be asked to select a hearing option.
  - ii. The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities will schedule the hearing providing the charged student and the complainant with a minimum notice of five business days.
- e. If the charged student fails to attend the Educational Conference or complete the Educational Conference Form, the matter will be referred for hearing to the Student Conduct Committee.
- f. Complainant/Victim Educational Conference: The complainant/victim will be given the opportunity to participate in a separate Educational Conference, the purpose of which is for the Conduct Officer to explain the conduct process and hearing procedures, possible sanctions for the charged student, and to answer questions.

3. Hearing Options

- a. The charged student has the right to a hearing before the Student Conduct Committee. This committee must be composed of at least 50% students.
- b. In the alternative, the charged student may choose to have an Administrative Hearing before a Hearing Administrator if the following conditions are met:
  - i. The charged student signs a waiver of the right to a hearing before the Student Conduct Committee, and
  - ii. An Administrative Hearing is permitted by the Dean of Students, and
  - iii. No objection is raised by the complainant/victim.

The advisor shall not serve as a witness. The name and role of the advisor must be provided to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities in writing at least three business days prior to the scheduled meeting/hearing. - k. Witnesses: The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the complainant/victim, and the charged student may call witnesses. Witnesses may be questioned by all parties, including the charged student, the complainant/victim, and the Hearing Officer/Conduct Committee. In order to preserve the educational atmosphere of the hearing and to avoid creation of an adversarial environment, all questions for witnesses will be directed through the Hearing Administrator or Student Conduct Committee Chair. If a witness cannot appear, he or she may submit a written statement for consideration as long as the witness' signature is notarized. Witnesses will be permitted inside the hearing room only during their point of participation. Witnesses may be recalled by the Hearing Committee and/or Hearing Administrator.

However, the Hearing Administrator or Student Conduct Committee is not bound by those recommendations.

v. Hearing Decision Notification: A written decision letter from the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities will be provided to the charged student within ten business days following the close of the hearing.
