The Commons provides university departments, student organizations, vendors and guests an opportunity to reserve space for a variety of functions in the Commons and other various locations on campus. The Reservation and Conference Services staff will assist the customer in every phase of planning to include event consultation, room diagrams, catering, technical needs and decorating.

University Commons Production Services provides facility and technical support for all activities in the Commons plus special events at other campus locations. UC Production Services coordinates with Reservations and Conference Services to provide for the needs of non-University sponsors according to established fee structures and rentals.

The Housekeeping staff does an exemplary job of maintaining one of the largest and busiest facilities on campus. The facility is open an average of 17 hours each day providing a variety of complex programs and services.

The UCSA utilizes the Argo Galley for various events and performances throughout the year. In addition students use this area to play recreational games, grab a quick meal, relax and watch television or simply socialize.
