ArgoPulse is the lifeline for involvement at UWF. This website provides access to students to keep updated on the most current information on student involvement and student organizations.

Career Services
Bldg. 19 | 850.474.2254 | uwf.edu/career
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Career Services is focused on providing students with the tools they need to obtain career knowledge and experience while in school. Career advisors assist students with major/career exploration, resume and cover letter writing, interviewing skills, internships, job search strategies and much more.

Financial Aid
Bldg. 18 | 850.474.2400 | uwf.edu/finaid
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
The Financial Aid Office is a place to discuss financial aid options, funding your education, or concerns regarding your financial situation. When visiting the Financial Aid Office, a picture ID is required in order for us to discuss your account.

First-Year Advising Center
Bldg. 18, Rm. 150 | 850.474.3170 | uwf.edu/advising
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
The First-Year Advising Center assists freshmen with course selection for general studies and prerequisites for their major. Undergraduate students may make an appointment with their academic advisor to discuss academic plans, classes and schedules and schedules each semester. Advising appointments can be made in your MyUWF account through the GradesFirst app.

John C. Pace Library
Bldg. 32 | 850.474.2424 | library.uwf.edu
Sun 1:00 p.m.-1:00 a.m., M-Th 7:30 a.m.-1:00 a.m., F 7:30 a.m.-8:00 p.m., Sat 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m.
The Pace Library offers an inviting research and study environment with over 200 student computers to conduct research, write papers, or produce multimedia projects. The library seats more than 1,200 students in a variety of spaces including study carrels, tables, group study rooms, Smartboard collaboration areas, lounge seating, and study areas throughout the building including the Great Good Place and the Quiet Study Floor. Librarians are available at the reference desk to help with project questions.

Personal Librarian: The Personal Librarian Program is designed to introduce all incoming freshmen to the resources and services of the UWF Libraries. Each freshman will be assigned a Personal Librarian (PL) who is prepared to help students find resources for assignments and research papers and answer any questions about using our wide range of resources and services.

Academic Center for Excellence
Bldg. 52 Rm. 151 | 850.474.3176
M-Th 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m., F 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
The Academic Center for Excellence provides tutoring in all major subject areas offered at the University as well as paper editing for all subject areas. Tutoring appointments can be made in your MyUWF account through the GradesFirst app.

Math and Statistics Lab
Bldg. 4 | 850.474.2276 | Email: mathstat@uwf.edu
M-Th 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., F 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
The Department of Mathematics and Statistics provides free individual tutorial assistance for UWF students in several mathematics and statistics courses. The lab is staffed by advanced undergraduate and graduate students who provide tutoring primarily in service courses and lower division courses as well as some upper division courses upon tutors’ availability.

21st Century Scholars
Bldg. 52 Rm. 149 | 850.474.3266
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
The 21st Century Scholars Program is designed to help students successfully complete their studies at the University of West Florida. Students who participate in this program will be provided with tools that will help them develop good study habits, leadership skills and interpersonal skills.

Writing Lab
uwf.edu/writelab | M-F 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
The Writing Lab offers face-to-face and online paper reading/critiquing and Skill-of-the-Week tutoring in grammar and usage, mechanics, and sentence structure. These services are offered by appointment and on a walk-in basis. Any university student, whether or not enrolled in a composition course, may use the Writing Lab for help with writing skills from invention and brainstorming to editing and revising. The Writing Lab is staffed by paper readers and tutors who, as undergraduate and graduate students themselves, know firsthand the prevailing struggle of consistently producing quality written work.

Argo Link Commuter
Bldg. 21 Rm. 110 | 850.473.7229 | Email: argolink@uwf.edu
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Argo Link Commuter caters to the specific needs of First-Time in College Freshman (FTIC) students that commute to campus, commuter students. Argo Link Commuter assists freshman commuter students with the adjustment to the University of West Florida, and encourage them to become active and informed members of the campus community. Ultimately, the goal is to get commuting Argonauts out having fun, meeting people and getting connected to UWF by attending on/off-campus educational and social events. A team of upperclassmen student leaders called Argo Link Liaisons are assigned to freshman commuters to keep them informed about campus events, upcoming academic workshops and non-academic resources on campus. Join us today!
Campus Engagement: ArgoPulse | argopulse.uwf.edu

ArgoPulse is the lifeline for involvement at UWF. This website provides access to students to keep updated on the most current information on student involvement and student organizations.

Career Services
Bldg. 19 | 850.474.2254 | uwf.edu/career
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Career Services is focused on providing students with the tools they need to obtain career knowledge and experience while in school. Career advisors assist students with major/career exploration, resume and cover letter writing, interviewing skills, internships, job search strategies and much more.

Financial Aid
Bldg. 18 | 850.474.2400 | uwf.edu/finaid
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The Financial Aid Office is a place to discuss financial aid options, funding your education, or concerns regarding your financial situation. When visiting the Financial Aid Office, a picture ID is required in order for us to discuss your account.

First-Year Advising Center
Bldg. 18, Rm. 150 | 850.474.3170 | uwf.edu/advising
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The First-Year Advising Center assists freshmen with course selection for general studies and prerequisites for their major. Undergraduate students may make an appointment with their academic advisor to discuss academic plans, classes and schedules and schedules each semester. Advising appointments can be made in your MyUWF account through the GradesFirst app.

John C. Pace Library
Bldg. 32 | 850.474.2424 | library.uwf.edu

The Pace Library offers an inviting research and study environment with over 200 student computers to conduct research, write papers, or produce multimedia projects. The library seats more than 1,200 students in a variety of spaces including study carrels, tables, group study rooms, Smartboard collaboration areas, lounge seating, and study areas throughout the building including the Great Good Place and the Quiet Study Floor. Librarians are available at the reference desk to help with project questions.

Personal Librarian: The Personal Librarian Program is designed to introduce all incoming freshmen to the resources and services of the UWF Libraries. Each freshman will be assigned a Personal Librarian (PL) who is prepared to help students find resources for assignments and research papers and answer any questions about using our wide range of resources and services.

Academic Center for Excellence
Bldg. 52 Rm. 151 | 850.474.3176
M-Th 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m., F 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

The Academic Center for Excellence provides tutoring in all major subject areas offered at the University as well as paper editing for all subject areas. Tutoring appointments can be made in your MyUWF account through the GradesFirst app.

Math and Statistics Lab
Bldg. 4 | 850.474.2276 | Email: mathstat@uwf.edu
M-Th 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., F 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics provides free individual tutorial assistance for UWF students in several mathematics and statistics courses. The lab is staffed by advanced undergraduate and graduate students who provide tutoring primarily in service courses and lower division courses as well as some upper division courses upon tutors’ availability.

21st Century Scholars
Bldg. 52 Rm. 149 | 850.474.3266
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The 21st Century Scholars Program is designed to help students successfully complete their studies at the University of West Florida. Students who participate in this program will be provided with tools that will help them develop good study habits, leadership skills and interpersonal skills.

Writing Lab
Bldg. 51 Rm. 157 | 850.474.2129 | uwf.edu/writelab
M-F 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The Writing Lab offers face-to-face and online paper reading/critiquing and Skill-of-the-Week tutoring in grammar and usage, mechanics, and sentence structure. These services are offered by appointment and on a walk-in basis. Any university student, whether or not enrolled in a composition course, may use the Writing Lab for help with writing skills from invention and brainstorming to editing and revising. The Writing Lab is staffed by paper readers and tutors who, as undergraduate and graduate students themselves, know firsthand the prevailing struggle of consistently producing quality written work.

Arigo Link Commuter
Bldg. 21 Rm. 110 | 850.473.7229 | Email: argolink@uwf.edu
M-F 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Argo Link Commuter caters to the specific needs of First-Time in College Freshman (FTIC) students that commute to campus, commuter students. Argo Link Commuter assists freshman commuter students with the adjustment to the University of West Florida, and encourage them to become active and informed members of the campus community. Ultimately, the goal is to get commuting Argonauts out having fun, meeting people and getting connected to UWF by attending on/off-campus educational and social events. A team of upperclassmen student leaders called Argo Link Liaisons are assigned to freshman commuters to keep them informed about campus events, upcoming academic workshops and non-academic resources on campus. Join us today!