Business

The meeting started with an open discussion of current policies with specific attention to instructional materials. Vice Provost McCorkle opened the floor to discussion of the intellectual property policy and the electronic courseware addendum with the two provisions in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, articles 20 and 10. She further expressed that the goal of this group and meeting is to discuss what the current policies say and to share ideas for revision and improvement.

Vice Provost McCorkle spoke to the similarity of the policy at the University of West Florida to that of the University of Florida. The floor was opened for discussion with a review of the definitions with attention to instructional materials. It was decided that another meeting would occur before the conclusion of the Spring 2019 semester.
