Upcoming Changes in the Division of Academic Affairs

UWF Community,

I want to share with you some upcoming organizational changes within the Division of Academic Affairs. The changes listed below will be effective July 1.

- The Center for Academic Success will move from the Division of Academic Engagement and Student Affairs to the Division of Academic Affairs, reporting to the Provost. The Center's sub-units, First Year Advising, Tutoring & Learning Resources, and TRIO Student Support Services, will also move and remain under the Center.
- The Kugelman Honors Program will move from the Division of Academic Engagement and Student Affairs to the Division of Academic Affairs, reporting to the Vice Provost.
- The Office of the Registrar will also report directly to the Vice Provost.
- The application and admission of graduate students is moving from the Graduate School to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions is also being renamed to the Office of University Admissions.
- The Graduate School is being renamed to the Office of Graduate Studies.
