

Not-For-Profit Administration Certificate

Department: Applied Science, Technology and Administration

Method of Instruction: Online

Semester Hours: 10.5 hrs. 4 courses

SLO #	SLO #1	SLO #2	SLO #3	SLO #4
Course	Analyze the field of nonprofit organizations from a management perspective.	Apply generally accepted accounting principles and evaluation techniques to not-for-profit organizations	Analyze the rationale and methods of strategic management applied to the planning processes of public and nonprofit organizations	Examine various budgeting systems and the political processes and environment that impact them.
PAD 5146	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze case studies dealing with effective nonprofit leadership Midterm exam (knowledge and application based)
PAD 6335			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze case studies related to the principles of strategic management as they apply to nonprofit organizations. Midterm exam (knowledge and application based)
PAD 6227				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Critique budgeting systems and how they are impacted by political and environmental factors. Develop budgets based on political and environmental concerns.
GEB 5509 EME6358		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze NPO financial statements. Develop a comprehensive evaluation plan using models and techniques appropriate for nonprofit settings. 		