

Aerospace Studies – Air Force ROTC

Mission Statement

The Air and Space Studies Minor assists Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps cadets and other students in meeting the criteria for a commission, as an Officer, in the United States Air Force or entry, as a civil service employee, into the Department of the Air Force or Department of Defense. The courses emphasize leadership and management techniques with an emphasis on Air Force and Joint military processes and programs.

Student Learning Outcomes

UWF Aerospace Studies minor graduates should be able to do the following:

Content

- Apply effective followership and teamwork skills.
- Know the principles of Air Force Health and Wellness.
- Employ good management of personal finances.
- Proficiently follow and enforce Air Force policies and procedures.

Critical Thinking

- State the mission and priorities of the United States Air Force.
- Identify and describe the significance of airpower through America's history.
- Analyze case studies to evaluate and describe the impact of cross-cultural competence on military operations at home and abroad.

Communication

- Explain the seven steps to effective communication.
- Describe and employ guidance for electronic communication (e-mail, voice mail, and telephone systems) in the Air Force.
- Develop and apply effective military verbal and written communication skills.
- Describe and define the steps of effective listening and improve listening skills.
- Compile event data to facilitate learning through After-Action Reviews and counseling sessions.
- Apply the leadership skills of coaching and counseling subordinates.

Integrity/Values

- Define and employ military customs and courtesies.
- Articulate the Air Force core values and their impact on personal and professional growth.
- Summarize the importance of managing diversity and list the benefits and potential problems of a diverse workforce.
- Identify the forms of discrimination and sexual harassment; summarize the effects of discrimination and sexual harassment on mission accomplishment and prevention of sexual harassment.
- Describe and comply with the Military Equal Opportunity Program.
- Prepare a personal development plan using the Officer Evaluation Report model.
- Administer a self assessment in personal developmental areas.

Find out More about Aerospace Studies at UWF:

<https://uwf.edu/ceps/departments/aerospace-studies-air-force-rotc/air-force-rotc-program/courses/>

10/11/19