

CURRENT PROGRAM SLOs	PROPOSED PROGRAM SLOs	CCJ 6061 CRIMINOLOGICAL THEORY	CCJ 6008 CRIMINAL JUSTICE THEORY	CCJ 6704 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	CCJ 6705 ANALYSIS OF QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DATA	CCJ 6745/ CCJ 6006 / CCJ 6021 / CCJ 6521	CCJ 6910 / CCJ 6946
CONTENT	CONTENT
Identify and discuss various theoretical explanations of crime and delinquency	1. Describe and critique the various theoretical explanations of crime, delinquency, and criminal justice	X	X
Identify and discuss theoretical explanations of criminal justice	2. Interpret, design, and apply scientific research using appropriate methods			X	X		X
Articulate the challenges inherent in criminology and criminal justice	3. Describe and evaluate the structures and processes of the CJ organizations		X			X	X
Describe common methods for conducting research in criminal justice
CRITICAL THINKING	CRITICAL THINKING
Analyze and critique the operation, functions, and developments of the criminal justice system and its components	4. Critically evaluate the operations and functions of criminal justice and the causes and consequences of crime	X	X	X	X	X	X
Analyze and interpret quantitative and qualitative data pertinent to research in criminology and criminal justice
Outline racial, ethnic, and gender issues in criminology and criminal justice
Hypothesize relationships among various factors in criminology and criminal justice Apply criminological and/or criminal justice theories to contemporary issues
COMMUNICATION	COMMUNICATION
Write logical, articulate, and structurally sound papers Describe and critique findings from criminology and criminal justice research and literature	5. Author logical, articulate, and structurally sound papers and oral presentations	X	X	X	X	X	X
INTEGRITY / VALUES	INTEGRITY / VALUES
Demonstrate approved ethical behaviors in criminology and criminal justice research and practice Describe, evaluate, and analyze ethical controversies in criminology and criminal justice	6. Demonstrate ethical behaviors in research and practice	X	X	X	X	X	X