

Resolution: 22-23 RS XV: UWF SAFE RIDE

Authors: President Patrick Marshall & Senate Pro Tempore Range

To read as follows:

WHEREAS, the initiatives set by the President and Vice President of SGA's fifty-fifth administration will be completed by the end of their term; and

WHEREAS, the UWF Safe Ride System initiative is currently in the process of completion and implication; and

WHEREAS, this program displays SGA's and Parking Services commitment to providing expedient, reliable alternatives to students so they are not walking home alone late or driving after drinking. In addition, offering several different solutions to alleviate security concerns, increase safety around campus, and offer a reliable transportation option; and

WHEREAS, the implication of the Safe Ride program will come to fruition under the SGA's fifty-sixth administration; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the fifty-fifth Student Body President at the University of West Florida that the President and Vice President of the fifty-six administration have oversight of the Safe Ride program and may allow members of their cabinet to regulate all responsibilities.
