- VI. Unfinished Business
 - A. None.
- VII. New Business
 - A. Bill I - Stipend Bill
 - 1. Author: Simpson - changes remove the actual stipend position receive now to the stipend will be determined based on the responsibilities given to the
 - 2. Questions:
 - a) Edgecombe: Concern with AS Fee why give stipend to positions with no current stipend?
 - b) Simmons? Will all the assistant get a stipend or just that assistant position? Senate will decide on the stipend.
 - c) Jalomo: President and VP will look over what stipend amount is then bring it to senate.
 - d) Bessemer: If the president ran and he wanted to change his stipend could he do that? HE would delay the stipends to the rest of the Cabinet members.
 - e) Bessemer: the budget bill passed? It would passed in the first senate of the new year.
 - f) Edgecombe: Some positions do not need senate approve? I sent two different bills on this to SPT Bessmer. I am checking my second bill.

- g) Edgecombe: These stipends come from? They can from the other stipends or we can ask for more money from the BA committee.
- h) Bessemer: Changes to GAs? It would not effect much of the GA ops line because they come first.
- i) Francois: If this were to pass, will it effect the overall budget of SGA? No,
- j) Edgecombe: OPS line? Money for position and GAs.
- k) McCabe: Can some of the Cabinet explain the stipend?
- l) Bessemer: It like a pay for the positions.
- m) Patel: We as the President, VP, and CoS do not support the bill because it may cause for positions not to get paid if the senate vetoes the budget/
- n) Jalomo: What is the process to change the bill? It came from the Treasurer Bill that was beautifully done but everyone get caught up on the amount of the stipend.
- o) Johnson: the purpose of the bill was to have stipends available to positions who they
- p) King? If this weren't to pass, will that effect the the stipend now? No, we would have to different another amendment to this bill at a later date.

3. Debate:

- a) Johnson: If we go ahead to set amount
- b) Iselborn: Would it possible to add a guarantee to the bill? No, not with how it's phrase here.
- c) Francois-Hamilton: Concerns to think about, there is no timeline for this and our summer bill has to pass before the semester ends. No caps. Any standardization so that stipends are fair for everyone based on responsibilities.
- d) Edgecombe: Personally, I am not supporting this bill. We can always amend later on with their stipends.

4. * Restart session Vote 1: 1-19-0

B. Bill II - Election Voting Timeline

- 1. Author: CoS Dupuis
- 2. Questions:
- 3. Debate:
 - a) Whipple: This was recently tried to pass in a previous Senate. This is reoccurring bill change.
 - b) Francois-Monte: votes stats
 - c) Jalomo-Washington: With the number Monte just gave, we had three days this year, last year, and 2015. This puts extra pressure on candidates and for the election commission. Many do not know you can vote 24 hours a day online during election time.

- d) Megginson: I feel that we need that extra day to ensure that student know what's going on.
- e) Bessemer: That is more of a marketing issue.
- f) Francois: We won't know the schedules of students until the semester starts.
- g) Monte: With more marketing, we can up the promotion of the online.
- h) Simmons: If we find a way to simplify the online voting I think we can get the same results.
- i) Hamilton: We encourage people to go out and campaign once the filing is done and approved. The most voting occurs on the first day and the last two hours of election.
- j) Martinez: If the stats show no difference, then it we should pass it.
- k) Simpson: Most of us ran unconsented. So by the three day we knew what we were getting.
- l) Johnson: Some of us did campaign but, some people don't keep the flyers or ask when voting is.
- m) Washington: From what I saw many campaigns were on social media. And many seats were unconsented.
- n) Simmons: Call to question. Williams seconds. Vote passes.

4. Vote 2: 13-7-0 bill fails.

C. Bill III - Summer Budget Bill

1. Author: Simpson

2. Questions:

- a) Johnson: Last year, travel was 2500 why the increased? We ahve more traveling planned this year and they did go over that last year.
- b) Bessemer-Hamiton:
- c) King: Where are they traveling? President and VP have to meetin gwith FSA and other Presidnets and VP from other school.
- d) Lewis: Office used for Pormos? No, we need money for printing and phone lines.
- e) Johnson: Money for spent in the summer is for stuff in the Fall? Yes like for events for we know are going to happen like Integrity week.
- f) Patel: We cannot spend money without your approval. So we try and lessen the pressure on you all so you guys to come in Senate over the summer.

X. Administrative Addresses

A. Dr. Kevin Bailey, VPSA

1. Why are you here? Perhaps it's because you wish to be involved, maybe it's to meeting new people, maybe is because you want to leave a legacy on campus. I trust that you will take this work of SGA seriously. The work happens outside in SGA. You MUST engage with the students who put you in office. You have a duty to make a change in this university. You have the opportunity to make some happen that the 100th Senate will talk about. Engage the administration, students, and community! August is coming...Sga is not a side piece. You make the time and make the commitment so that you leave a legacy!
