ACADEMIC MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Applicants who have applied and submitted all required documents (official test scores and transcripts) to receive an admissions decision are automatically considered for an academic merit scholarship. Merit scholarships are awarded to students who receive an admissions decision during the November 10 and December 10 Decision Days. See chart on back for general academic requirements.

National Merit Finalist Scholarship  Value: $50,000+
National Merit Finalists will be awarded full tuition, room and board, a $600 per-semester book stipend, and a paid research stipend.

Pace Presidential Scholarship  Value: $50,000+
Florida resident students invited to the scholarship competitions will compete for the Pace Presidential Scholarship. The Pace Presidential Scholarship, in conjunction with Florida Bright Futures, covers tuition, on-campus room and board, a $600 per-semester book stipend, and a paid summer research/study abroad experience. Students not selected for the full ride will still maintain their original academic merit scholarship.

Argo Spirit Scholarship  Value: $50,000+
For admitted, first-time-in-college students who have overcome obstacles, fought for something important and made an impact while in high school. This can be in the form of leadership, family contribution or community engagement. In order to be considered for this award, you must complete the Argo Spirit Scholarship Application and be admitted to UWF no later than April 1.

Foundation Scholarships  Value: Amounts vary
Through the generous support of various donors, UWF is able to offer a variety of foundation scholarships. After being offered admissions, students can apply for these scholarships through their my.UWF.edu account under the UWF Scholarship Portal. Deadlines vary. Must be admitted by April 1.

Pensacola Pledge Scholarship  Value: Up to $24,000 over 4 years
For first-time-in-college students who attend high school in Escambia or Santa Rosa counties in Florida. Must be admitted by April 1.

Argo 30 Guarantee
This may be awarded to all undergraduate Florida residents who are full-time Pell Grant eligible and working toward their first undergraduate degree. For those eligible, the grant will cover all tuition and fees not covered by other grants or scholarships.

CARA WOMACKS  NATIONAL MERIT FINALIST
“UWF was my top choice among all the colleges I considered, but I would not have been able to afford attending the University if not for the financial aid I’ve received.”

WILLIAM PHILIPS  PACE PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLAR
“Receiving this scholarship means I don’t have to worry nearly as much about finances, and instead, I can focus on academics as well as other things I like to do.”
