

Department: Housing and Residence Life

Title: Graduate Hall Director; Graduate Assistant for Advising and Programming

1. Graduate Assistant will be able to summarize and apply best practices of college student affairs administration within the areas of Housing & Residence Life.
2. Graduate Assistants will be able to recognize the relationship between Housing & Residence Life and other student affairs units/functional areas.
3. Graduate Assistants will employ a variety of communication skills including formal and informal verbal communication and writing.
4. Graduate Assistants will identify the variety of professional associations and conferences applicable to the Student Affairs profession, and Housing & Residence Life in particular.
5. Graduate Assistants will be directly supervised by a professional practitioner, and have the opportunity to form relationships with other professionals in the Housing & Residence Life department.
6. Graduate Assistants will demonstrate an ability to effectively supervise or advise student staff members working/volunteering for the Housing & Residence Life department.
7. Graduate Assistants will demonstrate an awareness of, concern for, and ability to learn about community, diversity, and individual differences.
8. Graduate Assistants will be administratively competent and will demonstrate applied competencies such as decision-making, time management, planning, budgeting, program implementation, program management, and program evaluation.
9. Graduate Assistants will be vocationally competent by demonstrating attitudes, skills, and behaviors essential to professional employment.
10. Graduate Assistants will be able to use appropriate strategies to influence individual, group, and organizational development as it pertains to college students and their environments.

Contact:

Samantha Brooks
Residence Life Coordinator
850-473-7319
sbrooks@uwf.edu