

Rights and Permissions Statement

I hereby grant the University of West Florida the non-exclusive right to archive and make accessible, under the conditions specified below, my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. I retain all ownership rights to the copyright of the thesis or dissertation. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis or dissertation.

I hereby certify that I have obtained and attached all necessary written permission(s) from the owner(s) of copyrighted matter to be included in my thesis or dissertation, allowing distribution as specified below.

My advisory committee and I agree that the above-mentioned document be placed in the Electronic Theses and Dissertation archive with the following status: (select one)

- 1. Release the entire work immediately for access worldwide.
- 2. Restrict the entire work to the University of West Florida, including interlibrary loan sharing for (select one) [ ] one year or [ ] two years.
Following this restricted time period, the work will be released for worldwide access unless I send a request in writing to the Dean, University Libraries, University of West Florida, indicating that the restriction be continued for another specified period of time.
- 3. Secure the entire work for patent and/or proprietary purposes for six months. During this period, the copyright owner also agrees not to exercise her/his ownership rights, including public use in works, without prior authorization from the University of West Florida. At the end of the six-month period, either I or the University of West Florida may request an extension for an additional six months. At the end of the six-month secure period (or its extension, if requested), the work will be handled under Option 1 above unless I request Option 2 in writing.
