SAR is hosting an early arrival program for incoming students identified as having Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). This two-day program will provide students with the tools for success as they transition to a university setting. Eligible students must be accepted to the university and enrolling for Fall 2018.

Topics will include:
- Academic Strategies
- Independent Living Skills
- Social Skills
- Career Readiness