Course Description

For those interested in pursuing a career path in the field of health, this course is among the final two in a series of courses designed to meet the curriculum requirements to become a Board Certified assistant Behavior Analyst (BACB) or a Qualified Autism Service Practitioner-Supervisor. This course utilizes previous knowledge of behavior analysis and synthesizes key components into a comprehensive application of expertise regarding measurement, assessment, behavior change procedures. The content is based on the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Task List and consists of (15) Hours of ethical and professional conduct. (The content is also based on the QABA QASP-S Standards and consists of (14) Hours of Legal, Ethical, and Professional Considerations and (1) Hour Autism Spectrum Disorder Basics. This course is offered independently of the BACB and QABA.

Course Format/Type. This course is 100% Online. Students will be required to participate in weekly online video conference style classes and applied assignments. In addition, students are required to access supporting documents from the Internet including the syllabus, assignments, and assessments. Weekly attendance in either live or recorded sessions is mandatory and proctored using the online educational platform provided by the University of West Florida.

Course Learning Outcomes.

Students will be able to:

1. Analyze potential outcomes of ethical or unethical behavior related to philosophical positions discussed in class.
2. Identify and discuss the implications of each ethical code relevant to their practice as a behavior analyst.
3. Demonstrate interpretation of concepts listed on the Professional Ethical Compliance Code Task List.
4. Interpret and discuss concepts related to ethical considerations, relating to real-life scenarios and examples.
5. Create a scenario describing a potential ethical dilemma that ABA practitioners may encounter, synthesize the relevant ethical codes, and propose potential solutions.

Grading System

Points will be allocated using the following weighted system:

1. Participation in weekly applied assignments and quizzes (100 % of final grade)

Exams.

All exams are cumulative and are available on the UWF eLearning system. Computers must be able to take the exam using a lock-down browser.

Assignments.

Content hours earned towards BACB requirements have been carefully calculated. If a student neither attends the live virtual class nor views the recorded lecture for each week, a 10% response cost to the final grade will be administered. If 3 or more class sessions are missed, this will result in an automatic (F) failing grade assigned for the course. Students must also complete weekly assignments to receive a passing grade in the course. Assignments submitted beyond one week from the due date will not receive points, but assignments still must be placed in eLearning by the end of the course in order to earn a passing grade. If any assignments are not submitted to eLearning by the end of course, a 10% response cost to the final grade per missing assignment will be administered. If 3 or more assignments are missed, this will result in an automatic (F) failing grade assigned for the course.

Grading scale.

Student Accessibility Resources

The University of West Florida supports an inclusive learning environment for all students. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that hinder your full participation, such as time-limited exams, inaccessible web content, or the use of non-captioned videos and podcasts, reasonable accommodations can be arranged. Prior to receiving accommodations, you must register with Student Accessibility Resources and submit a semester request each semester. Appropriate academic accommodations will be determined based on the documented needs of the individual. For information regarding the registration process, visit the SAR website, e-mail sar@uwf.edu or call 850.474.2387.

Expectations for Academic Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct sets forth the rules, regulations, and expected behavior of students enrolled at the University of West Florida. Violations of any rules, regulations or behavioral expectations may result in a charge of violating the Student Code of Conduct. It is the student's responsibility to read the Student Code of Conduct and comply with these expectations. The Student Code of Academic Conduct defines various forms of academic misconduct including cheating and plagiarism and describes the process for addressing allegations of academic misconduct. More information and links to the University regulations governing both student conduct and academic conduct can be found on the Dean of Students website listed under the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities

UWF maintains a university license agreement for an online text matching service called Turnitin. At our discretion, we may use the Turnitin service to evaluate the originality of student papers. We also may employ other services and techniques to evaluate your work for evidence of appropriate authorship practices as needed.

Respondus LockDown Browser is a client-based application that "locks down" a computer or device during an online exam delivered on a third-party assessment platform, such as a Learning Management System (LMS). Privacy information for Respondus LockDown Browser.

Respondus Monitor is a companion product for LockDown Browser that enables students to record themselves with a webcam and microphone during an online exam. The recordings and other data from the exam session are processed automatically; summary information is provided to the instructor, such as if the student left the video frame during the exam session. Military and Veterans' Resource Center

The UWF Military & Veterans Resource Center \(MVRC\) serves as a leading campus advocate for military and veterans students, working to ensure the needs of these individuals are met through coordinating with multiple university offices and services. The center provides assistance with the following: GI Bill[®] education benefits, active-duty tuition assistance, out-of-state fee waiver, tutoring, paper reading, counseling, disability accommodations, coordinating academic advising, and referral to state /federal resources and services. The MVRC is located in bldg. 38. For more information on MVRC service, call 474-2550

Mental Health Support

At the University of West Florida, we recognize that to learn, thrive, and flourish, you may need a little assistance. Please take advantage of the free resources online or on campus.

- For health concerns, contact Student Health Services at (850) 474-2172.
- For mental health or substance use concerns, contact Counseling and Psychological Services at 850-474-2420.
- For 24/7 crisis counseling, call 850-474-2420 and press option 6.

All students are encouraged to utilize Therapy Assistance Online (TAO) to strengthen skills to cope with anxiety, depression, stress management, and more. TAO is an interactive web-based self-help program that is available 24/7. Access TAO anonymously at uwf.edu/tao.

If you feel like you need somewhere to talk anonymously to others who can support you, peer support is available to all students 24/7 via TogetherAll. TogetherAll is an online community where members are anonymous and can share how they are feeling and support each other. Learn more and join TogetherAll at uwf.edu/togetherall

Mental Health is one aspect of holistic health, which encompasses all of the eight wellness dimensions. The eight dimensions do not have to be equally balanced. Instead, you should strive to achieve your own authentic personal harmony. You have unique goals, priorities, and aspirations. You determine how to live your best life. ArgoWell is here to help you make the healthy choice, the easy choice, and support you in your wellness journey. Meet ArgoWell

Discrimination or Harassment Reporting

The University of West Florida faculty members are committed to supporting students and upholding the University's non-discrimination and harassment policies. Under Title IX, discrimination and harassment based upon sex or gender (including sexual violence and sexual misconduct) are prohibited. If you experience an incident of sex/gender-based discrimination or harassment, you do not have to go through the experience alone. Know that while you may talk to a faculty member, understand that as a "Responsible Employee" of the University, the faculty are required to notify the University's Title IX Coordinator so that support services can be provided to you. If you would like to speak with someone confidentially, you may schedule an appointment with the UWF's Counseling and Psychological Services at (850) 474-2420. This service is free for students. Faculty can also help direct you, or you may refer to the University's Title IX website.

Emergency Information and Course Continuity Statement:

In the case of severe weather or another emergency, the campus might be closed and classes canceled. Official closures and delays are announced on the UWF website and broadcast on WUWF-FM.
