Proctoring Policy
UWF Emerald Coast
Fort Walton Beach Campus

1. UWF students will need to complete a proctor approval form which must be approved by your professor/instructor.

2. Proctoring appointments should be made as early as possible in the semester.
   - Cancelling or Rescheduling your appointment. Due to the large numbers of students seeking proctoring services and the limited number of appointments available, if you need to cancel a scheduled appointment, please contact Andrea Rymer or Tom Schwingle no later than 48 hours prior to your exam time, or as soon as possible if due to illness.
   - Late Arrival. A student will be considered “late” if they show up for their exam more than 15 minutes after their scheduled proctor time. If the student notifies the proctor before the 15-minute grace period expires, they may, at the discretion of the proctor, still be allowed to take the test if student agrees to a pro-rated exam time limit. If the student does not call before the 15-minute grade period expires, they will be asked to reschedule their appointment.
   - No Show. A student will be considered a “no show” if they miss their scheduled exam time without calling to notify our office 48 hours prior to their appointment.

   1st offense: The student will receive an e-mail after the first missed exam time, reminding them of the policy and advising them that they will be subject to the “no show” policy during the semester.

   2nd offense: The student will receive an e-mail after the second missed exam time, informing them that they will no longer be able to schedule proctored exams for the semester at the Fort Walton Beach Campus.
