

AFSCME WRITTEN REPRIMAND

UWF employees should be specifically advised that they are receiving an Written Reprimand and the reasons for such reprimand. Records of written reprimands shall contain only a brief description and the dates of the incident and reprimand, the names of the employee and supervisor, and the disciplinary standards violated. Written reprimands shall not be used as a basis for later disciplinary actions against an employee provided the employee has maintained a discipline-free work record for at least two (2) consecutive years. Such written reprimands shall be marked "invalid in accordance with Section 7.3(C) any time after that two (2) year period upon written request of the employee." However, such reprimands can be used to show that the employee was warned in the past about his or her conduct.
