ARGONAUTS MAKE SCHOOL A PRIORITY
Both in and outside of the classroom, UWF students are dedicated, motivated and achieving.

9 out of 10
UWF students discuss grades and/or assignments with an instructor.

4 out of 5
UWF students discuss class content outside of class.

4 out of 5
UWF students have had serious conversations with others who had very different religious beliefs, political opinions and personal values.

More than half of UWF students have participated in activities to enhance their spirituality.

Nearly half of UWF students are involved in campus activities outside of class.

4 out of 5
UWF students actively participate in class.

9 out of 10
students reported that they worked harder than they thought they could to meet faculty expectations.

UWF students spend an average of 14 hours a week preparing for class.

96%
UWF students believe that no matter how smart you are, you can always learn new things.

Includes data from the National Survey of Student Engagement, Spring 2013 & 2014 and the Continuing Student Survey, Spring 2013. For more information, contact Dr. Sarah Luczyk at 474.2122 or sluczyk@uwf.edu.
SENIORS SAY...

After graduation...

58% of Seniors said they will join the work-force full-time.

20% of Seniors said they are going to graduate school.

The remaining students say they’ll pursue other paths like mission work, military service and additional course work.

On par with national averages, nearly 1 out of 2 UWF students secure a job before graduation.

82% of graduates participated in a high-impact learning practice.

As a result of their UWF education, our Argos feel well-prepared in these areas:

- Conducting Research
- Critical Thinking Skills
- Problem Solving
- Verbal Communication Skills
- Professional Ethics & Values

Results of the Graduating Student Survey, Spring 2011 - Spring 2015. "Well-prepared" is a combination of Very Prepared and Extremely Prepared responses equaling at least 75% of respondents. For more information, contact Dr. Sarah Luczyk at 474.2122 or sluczyk@uwf.edu.