University Guests: A username and password are required to use ArgoAir. Your UWF host can obtain a guest ArgoAir account from the ITS Help Desk or a Local Service Provider.

1. Open System Preferences, and then click the Network icon.

2. In the white sidebar, click Airport. Then, click the Advanced button.
3. Click the + button.

4. - Beside Network Name, type uwf-argo-air.
   - In the Security drop-down box, select WPA2-Enterprise.
5. - Enter your ArgoNet username and password.
- Make sure that 802.1X is set to Automatic.
- Click Add.

6. uwf-argo-air should appear in your list of preferred networks. Click OK.
7. Click Always Allow.

9. - Check the box labeled “Always trust...”.
   - Click Continue.
   - You may be asked to enter your Mac password.
   Note: The certificate may be named “rauth2.argo.uwf.edu.”
10. If your airport connection is off, turn it on now.
   - If you are in the ArgoAir coverage area, it should connect automatically.
   - If you see this screen in your Network Preferences window, and it says Authenticated via PEAP, then you are connected to ArgoAir.
   - Try opening a website to confirm that you are connected to the Internet.
   - Once you are connected, exit System Preferences.

11. In order to print to a WEPA kiosk from your computer, download WEPA print drivers from wepanow.com.
    Your WEPA username and password was sent to you in an email from WEPA. This WEPA account is linked to your Nautilus Card account. For more information on WEPA printing, see uwf.edu/studentprinting.
