

NOTICE OF PROPOSED EMERGENCY REGULATION

June 14, 2006

University of West Florida

REGULATION TITLE: UWF/REG 4.002 Waiver of Tuition and Fees. (EMERGENCY)
STATEMENT OF FACTS AND REASONS FOR EMERGENCY REGULATION. The University is currently actively recruiting graduate students and is at a competitive disadvantage in attracting the best students versus other universities that offer out-of-state tuition waivers to students with graduate assistantships. A change to the regulation allowing for fee waivers will allow the University to compete for students immediately.

STATEMENT OF REASONS THE PROCEDURE USED WAS FAIR UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES

The Proposed Emergency Regulation will be posted to the UWF Board of Trustees' website from June 14, 2006 until the Board of Trustees meeting on June 26, 2006. If approved by the Board of Trustees, the proposed emergency regulation will be an approved emergency regulation effective on July 1, 2006 for the Fall, 2006 and will be posted as such on the Board of Trustees website.

University of West Florida Regulation

UWF/REG 4.002 -Waiver of Tuition and Fees (Emergency)

- (1) The University will waive tuition and fees as required in Section 1009.26, F.S.
- (2) The University will waive the tuition and mandatory fees for Florida residents 60 years of age or older under the conditions set forth in Section 1009.26, F.S.
- (3) The University will waive the out-of-state per credit hour fees for qualified students from Alabama, and instead, charge the Alabama Differential out-of-state fee.
- (4) The University will, upon appeal of the student, waive the late registration, late payment and/or reinstatement fee when the University determines:
  - (a) The University is primarily responsible for the delinquency, or
  - (b) Extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the student prevented registration or the payment of fees.

(5) The President of the University or designee is authorized to waive out-of-state fees for purposes which support and enhance the mission of the University. With the exception of waivers provided to individuals as a result of extenuating circumstances, all such waivers shall be reported by the President or designee to the Board of Trustees at the time of implementation.
